

Please, please protect our right to hear diverse voices in our media. I am astounded at how much control of the media is already in the hands of only a few. This erosion of diversity has happened quietly and quickly and must not be allowed to continue if we are truly to remain a country of informed citizens.